IRR CEO Frans Cronje comments on TAU SA

On 28 February, a poorly worded social media post drafted and issued under my direction created the impression that the IRR was of the view that the Transvaal Agricultural Union of South Africa (TAU SA) had neglected its members.

This was not our intention. On the contrary, TAU SA has consistently been the only agricultural group to identify the threat posed by the drive towards Expropriation without Compensation.

It has, in our experience, always acted boldly and unapologetically in defence of its members.

Given what is at stake in current threats to property rights in the country, all South Africans can be grateful to TAU SA and its leadership.
