IRR launches online platform, the Daily Friend

The Institute of Race Relations (IRR) has launched its own online platform, the Daily Friend, to promote classical liberalism – individual rights, free markets, the right to own property, freedom from unnecessary government and bureaucratic interference, tolerance and the right to free expression.

Editor-in-chief Sara Gon said: 'We will bring you the best pro-liberty columnists, daily news we think is particularly interesting, and sensible opinion.'

'Every day you will be able to read some of the best analysis on South Africa – on politics, the economy, and what the future holds for you and your family.'

'This site is an important new tool in the battle of ideas the outcome of which will determine whether South Africa reaches its potential as a free, prosperous, and open society.'

Visit the Daily Friend at <http://dailyfriend.co.za>

Readers are urged to let us know what they think, or what they would like to see on the website, by emailing Gon at sara@irr.org.za
